

In 4G last half term we were learning about which conditions plants grow best in and what plants need to grow well. We did practical activities to help us to understand this better, planting our own seeds and monitoring if they would germinate and how they would grow.

In 4G last half term we were learning about which conditions plants grow best in and what plants need to grow well. We did practical activities to help us to understand this better, planting our own seeds and monitoring if they would germinate and how they would grow.

In 4G last half term we were learning about which conditions plants grow best in and what plants need to grow well. We did practical activities to help us to understand this better, planting our own seeds and monitoring if they would germinate and how they would grow.

